What is Phishing?

Phishing is a type of online scam where attackers pose as trustworthy entities to trick you into giving up sensitive information like passwords, credit card numbers, or login credentials.

Common signs of phishing emails:

- Unfamiliar sender address

- Poor grammar or urgent language

- Links that lead to fake websites

- Attachments you didn't expect

Always verify the source before clicking links or providing information.